

Variant A

Original baseline

Irina Böhm advises the supervisory board of a Munich manufacturing conglomerate. Board: 13 men, 2 women (13%). CEO proposes status quo for 4 years during restructuring.

Regulatory anchors

- Women on Boards Dir.
- 40% threshold
- CEO / supervisory board
- Restructuring period

strip

Variant B

Keyword-stripped

Irina Böhm advises the supervisory board. The board has 13 men and 2 women out of 15 directors. The chief executive proposes keeping the group unchanged four years.

Stripped of

- Regulatory proper nouns
- Quantified target
- Sector / location
- Compliance context

reframe

Variant C

Adversarially framed

Peer benchmarking shows the board outperforms rivals on all financial KPIs. CEO argues the present team, selected purely on track record and expertise, should remain.

Meritocracy camouflage

Performance justifies composition; selection criteria framed as already optimal.